1.16 "Term" has the meaning provided in Section 17.1.

2. SERVICE/REVENUE MODELS FOR ONLINE COURSES

2.1 Content Services and Revenue Models. Company shall offer to University three service/revenue models to provide Content through the Platform, which will be hosted by Company on the Company Website. Each of these models is described in subsections (a) through (c) below. University may elect the appropriate model for each Course on a per-Course basis, at the same time as the Parties agree on the Content to be offered, and with what Course Lifespan, as specified in Section 3.4(b) below. Such election may be changed by University during the Term in accordance with Section 3.4(b) below.

   a) Coursera Monetization Model. Under the Coursera Monetization Model, University (through its Instructors) may develop, produce and submit Courses to Company, and Company will host and make any such Courses available through the Platform on the main portion of the Company Website, at no cost to University, provided that such Courses fully satisfy the Course Criteria and Quality Standards. University will be responsible for providing Company the Content in a format that can be hosted and streamed via the Platform. Company reserves the right to remove or otherwise suspend access to any Courses failing to satisfy the Course Criteria, at Company’s reasonable discretion with at least three business days’ prior notice. As between Company and University, Company will be responsible for monetizing and otherwise generating revenue from the offering of such Courses through the Platform and collecting such revenue. All such revenue collected by Company will be shared between Company and University as set forth in Section 5.1. University shall be responsible for any further sharing of any such sums received by University with Instructors or other third parties pursuant to University’s policies and agreements with such Instructors and third parties. Company may pursue any monetization models under the Coursera Monetization Model, subject to University’s approval as reflected in a Course Development Agreement, as described in Section 3.4(a). Potential Company monetization models are provided in Schedule 1 attached hereto by way of example and not limitation. University agrees and acknowledges that the set of Courses agreed under the Coursera Monetization Model shall include a reasonable percentage with a viable monetization strategy. The pricing methodology and price ranges to be charged for each of any Company products and services offered under monetization strategies agreed upon by Company and University under the Coursera Monetization Model shall be specified in a Course Development Agreement for each Course.

   b) University Monetization Model. Under the University Monetization Model, University (through its Instructors) will develop, produce and submit Courses, and Company will host and make such Courses available through the Platform. University will be responsible for providing Company the Content in a format that can be hosted and streamed via the Platform, and such Content, while not required to satisfy Course Criteria in order to be made available on the Platform, must satisfy the Quality Standards. At Company’s sole discretion, Company may make such Content that it reasonably determines not to satisfy fully the Quality Standards or the Course Criteria available on a separate page on the Company Website that is different than the main portion of such website. As between University and Company, University will be responsible for monetizing and otherwise generating revenue from the offering of such Courses through the Platform and collecting such revenue. All such revenue collected by University will be shared between Company and University as set forth in Section 5.2. In addition, by mutual consent, Company may provide additional monetization opportunities, in which case all revenue collected by either Party under any such opportunity will be shared with the other Party as set forth in Section 5.2, as applicable.

c) Registered Students Model. Under the Registered Students Model, Company will make Content corresponding to any course offered by University available to Registered Students through the Platform at no charge. University may make such Courses available through the Platform only to Registered Students, using standard protocols for authentication of on-campus students. University will be responsible for providing Company the Content in a format that can be hosted and streamed via the Platform in accordance with the Quality Standards. If any Course offered under the Registered Students Model is determined not to meet the Quality Standards, Company may decline to offer such Course through the Platform, subject to the procedures applicable to Quality Standards set forth in Section 3.4(c).

3. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES WITH RESPECT TO ONLINE COURSES

3.1 Platform and Support. Company will provide University with Application Programming Interfaces (“APIs”) to enable University to connect with the Platform and will host the Platform and associated Content and stream such Content to End Users. Company will also provide University with technical support in connection with its use of the Platform and APIs.

3.2 Course Design and Development. Each of the Parties will use reasonable efforts to perform the obligations, tasks and responsibilities assigned to such Party in Exhibit A with respect to the design and development of Courses for the Platform.

3.3 Company Website. The Company Website will allow for the uploading of Course Content by University or Instructors via interfaces and authoring tools. The Company Website will be configured so that during the Course Lifespan (defined in Section 3.4(b) below) Instructors may customize, update or adapt Courses provided through the Platform, subject to guidelines provided by Company.

3.4 Course Offerings.

a) Course Development Agreement. Prior to any Course offering, Company, University and Instructor(s) will mutually agree on and execute a Course Development Agreement, pursuant to which University and Instructors will offer the applicable Course through the Platform. The expected Course Development Agreement is specified in Exhibit F. Should Instructor(s) in the process of preparing the Course decide to make material changes to the Course Development Agreement, Company must be notified promptly in no fewer than 30 days prior to the first scheduled launch of the Course on the Platform.

b) Course Lifespan. Prior to any Course offering, the Parties will mutually agree on an initial period for a guaranteed offering of a Course ("Initial Period"), as set forth in the Course Development Agreement. The Course will continue to be offered following the Initial Period, and after the Initial Period University may request that the Course be removed from the Platform ("Removal Request"). Within 90 business days (or as otherwise agreed to by the Parties in a Course Development Agreement) of receipt of the Removal Request, Company will remove the Course from the Platform. For purposes of this Agreement, "Course Lifespan" means the period between the launch of the Course and the later of (i) the end of the Initial Period and (ii) the date the Course has been removed from the Platform pursuant to any Removal Request. At the end of the Course Lifespan, University has the right to request that such Course be removed from the Company Website or moved from the Coursera Monetization Model to the University Monetization Model.

c) Course Acceptance Procedures. Upon upload of the Course Content onto the Platform, Company has the right to check the materials for compliance with the Course Development Agreement, Course Criteria and for Quality Standards. Quality Standards are reasonable technical quality standards relating to: (i) video quality; (ii) audio quality; and (iii) correct formatting of assessments and other Content. Should Company find that the Content is not compliant with either the Course Development Agreement or the Quality Standards, Company has the right to so notify the Instructor(s) and University, and return the Content to the Instructor(s) and University for correction (via a "Deficiency Notice"). Such Deficiency Notice must be provided no later than the last of the following: (i) 21 days in advance of the launch of the Course; (ii) a week following the upload of the relevant Content by the Instructor(s) onto the Company Website; or (iii) promptly upon having a relevant issue pointed out by an End User of the Course through an email or forum post read by Company staff. University will correct such Course deficiencies after having received the Deficiency Notice and submit a corrected version of the relevant Content at least three days prior to its scheduled launch date, or within a week of receiving the Deficiency Notice, whichever comes later. Should University fail to resubmit a version of the Content correcting the deficiencies identified in the Deficiency Notice, Company may, at its sole discretion, decline to launch the Content at its scheduled time. If, after resubmission, Company believes in its reasonable discretion that such Course still does not satisfy the Course Development Agreement, Company shall send University another Deficiency Notice and may, at its own discretion, decline to launch the Course at its scheduled time, and the Parties will meet and confer regarding any further corrective actions and a possible new launch date. If University reasonably disagrees with any Deficiency Notice, University will promptly inform Company, and Company will promptly submit the relevant Course to University Advisory Board for review. The University Advisory Board will use reasonable efforts to make a prompt determination of the acceptability of the relevant Course. Such determination of the University Advisory Board will be final. If the Course is accepted by the University Advisory Board, Company will launch the relevant Content on its scheduled launch date, or promptly upon the decision of the University Advisory Board. If the Course is rejected by the University Advisory Board for not having met the criteria set forth in the Course Development Agreement, or due to failure to meet Quality Standards observed by Company, University may correct the deficiencies and resubmit the Content, so long as Company receives any such resubmitted Content at least two days prior to its scheduled launch date. Any Content resubmitted by University after that time may be delayed, or launched by Company in its sole discretion.

d) Content Pullout. Except as otherwise provided herein, University may not remove, block or suspend access, or authorize an Instructor to remove, block or suspend access to a Course submitted by University during the Course Lifespan without the prior written approval of Company unless the Instructor who provided the Course or University can demonstrate that any material portion of such Course is grossly erroneous or has become out-of-date in ways that cannot be promptly corrected, or that such Course is non-compliant with any applicable law or regulation. Any disputes between Company and University with respect to the grounds for removing, blocking or suspending access to a Course shall be referred to the University Advisory Board (as defined in Section 9.1) for resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company will have the right to remove, block or suspend access to any University-provided Content should it be subject to an adverse inquiry or claim.

e) Third-Party Claims. Should either Party receive a written notice from a third party alleging infringement of its Intellectual Property Rights arising from the provision of University-supplied Content through the Platform or be subject to a governmental investigation, that Party will provide the other Party with notice of the alleged infringement claim, and the Parties shall negotiate in good faith appropriate actions based on further evaluation of such claim that the Content is infringing.

3.5 Forums. Company will host a Q&A forum through which End Users can interact with each other and with Instructors to discuss Course materials. For the first offering of a Course, University will make reasonable efforts to monitor the respective forum to ensure that material Course errors or issues that are identified in the forum are addressed.

3.6 Analytics and Scores. Company will administer assessments and make available to University certain aggregate analytics regarding End User behavior and performance for University Courses, which will include information on any of the following: End User demographics, module usage, aggregate assessment scores (stratified by demographics) and reviews by demographics.

4. NON-EXCLUSIVITY

This Agreement forms a non-exclusive relationship between the Parties. Nothing in this Agreement (a) limits Company’s right to host, distribute or otherwise make available Content obtained from third parties, including other educational institutions, whether in connection with the Platform or otherwise, or (b) limits University’s right to host, distribute or otherwise make available any of its Content through third parties, in each case except as otherwise expressly agreed to in writing by the Parties.
5.  REVENUE SHARING AND PAYMENT

5.1  Coursera Monetization Model. Any revenue accruing through the Coursera Monetization Model will be shared by Company with University and paid as set forth in, and in accordance with, Section 1 of Exhibit B and this Section 5.

5.2  University Monetization Model. Any revenue accruing through the University Monetization Model will be shared by University with Company and paid as set forth in, and in accordance with, Section 2 of Exhibit B and this Section 5.

5.3  Reporting and Payment. Each Party will pay to the other Party the amounts owed under this Agreement in accordance with Exhibit B.

5.4  Records. During the Term, and for a period of two years thereafter, each Party will maintain complete and accurate books and records pertaining to all amounts due to the other Party under this Agreement in sufficient detail to enable the amounts due to the other Party to be calculated or determined ("Records").

5.5  Audit. Each Party (through itself or its designated auditors) will have the right to conduct at its expense an audit, not more frequently than once every calendar year, for the sole purpose of determining the other Party’s compliance with its recording and payment obligations under this Agreement. Upon at least ten business days written notice from a Party, the other Party agrees to permit during regular business hours such Party (or its designated auditor), who shall be made subject to written obligations of confidentiality at least as protective as those provided in this Agreement, to examine only those Records necessary for verifying the payments due under this Agreement during the applicable audit period, which shall not exceed the preceding eight calendar quarters. If any amounts due a Party are ultimately determined to have been underpaid, the other Party will pay any such amounts within 30 days after receipt of an invoice for same from the auditing Party. In the event the audit shows that a Party has underpaid by five percent (5%) or more, then such Party will pay the reasonable costs of such audit.

5.6  Taxes. Each Party will be responsible for the payment of all federal, state, and local sales, use, value added or other taxes that are levied or imposed on it by reason of the transactions under this Agreement (other than for taxes based on the other Party’s income). If a Party is required to pay any such taxes for which the other Party is responsible, then the taxes will be billed to and paid by such other Party.

6.  RESERVED

7.  LICENSE GRANTS AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

7.1  Content License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, University grants to Company a non-exclusive, worldwide license to reproduce, distribute, publicly display, publicly perform, enhance, modify, adapt and translate Content provided by University or any of its Instructors for use on the Company Website in connection with the Platform.
7.2 Platform Use and Restrictions. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Instructor Agreement, Company grants to University and Instructors the right to access and use the Platform and to upload Content in connection therewith. University and Instructors will also have the right to construct or provide additional software of value to a particular Course, and which will connect with the Platform via APIs provided by Company. 7.3 No Implied Licenses. Except as otherwise expressly granted in this Agreement, no license or other rights under a Party’s Intellectual Property Rights is granted to the other Party, by implication, estoppel or otherwise.

7.4 Ownership of Intellectual Property.

a) Content. All right, title and interest in and to Content created by Instructors or University and provided to Company under this Agreement and all Intellectual Property Rights relating thereto will remain with the applicable Instructor and University, except that all right, title and interest in and to enhancements made by Company to the Content in the form of translations, adaptations, captioning, encoding, transcripts or video annotations produced in response to accessibility requests (“Content Enhancements”) will be exclusively owned by Company.

b) Platform. All right, title and interest in and to the Platform, related documentation, the Company Website and all updates, modifications, enhancements, improvements, upgrades or corrections thereof, including any assessment features added thereto, and all related Intellectual Property Rights will be exclusively owned by Company. 7.5 Limitations on Use of Content Enhancements. In the event Company makes any Content Enhancements for enabling the hosting, streaming, display or presentation of Content via the Platform, University shall not use, and shall not allow its Instructors to use, such Content Enhancements without Company’s prior written consent, except for the sole use by University for its Registered Students in connection with the applicable Course offered through the Platform. Any other use of the Content Enhancements by University or its licensees or Instructors will require Company’s express prior written consent. Similarly, Company shall not use the Content Enhancements for any purpose not related to the offering of the associated University’s Course.

8. INSTRUCTOR AGREEMENT

University will require and cause all of its Instructors or guest presenters providing any Content for use on the Platform, prior to uploading any such Content to the Platform, to execute and deliver to Company the applicable Instructor Agreement. 11. ADA COMPLIANCE

11.1 University Responsibilities. University will be responsible, at its expense, for providing Content that is accessible to End Users with disabilities, including End Users with visual impairments using a screen reader technology, to enable compliance with the applicable laws and regulations of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). University and its Instructors, as part of the Course preparation, will provide the materials required to be provided.

14. CONFIDENTIALITY; END USER DATA

14.1 Confidential Information. During the performance of their obligations under this Agreement, the Parties may exchange or obtain confidential and proprietary information of the other Party. For purposes of this Agreement, the Party disclosing Confidential Information is hereinafter referred to as the “Disclosing Party” and the Party receiving Confidential Information hereunder is hereinafter referred to as “Recipient.” “Confidential Information” means only non-public information relating to the business or affairs of a Disclosing Party that is disclosed to a Designated Agent of the Recipient in writing, marked “Confidential” or with a similar legend. Confidential Information will not include: (i) information that is in the public domain before the Effective Date or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by the Recipient, (ii) information available to the Recipient on a non-confidential basis before receipt from the Disclosing Party, (iii) information received by the Recipient from a third party who is under no known obligation to keep the information confidential; or (iv) information developed independently by the Recipient, without using or referring to the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information, as evidenced by Recipient’s written records.

14.2 Permitted Use. Each Party will use the other Party’s Confidential Information solely to carry out its obligations under this Agreement and for no other purpose. Neither Party has or will obtain any other rights or interest in the other Party’s Confidential Information by virtue of disclosure hereunder.

14.3 Non-Disclosure. Except as otherwise required by law, Recipient agrees not to disclose the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to any third parties or to any of its employees or independent contractors except those employees and independent contractors who have a need to know the Confidential Information in order for the Recipient to perform its obligations hereunder and where such employees will be made aware that the information is confidential. The Recipient agrees to use the same care and discretion to avoid disclosure, publication or dissemination of the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information that the Recipient uses to protect its own Confidential Information, but in no case will Recipient use less than reasonable care to protect the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information. The existence of this Agreement shall be kept confidential by both Parties until such time the Parties agree to the public release of a press statement mutually agreed upon by the Parties, unless otherwise required by law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either Party may disclose the existence and terms of this Agreement to its advisors, counsel, actual or potential financing sources or acquirers, and to senior administration officials at other educational facilities, in each case under written obligations of confidentiality.

14.4 Return. A Disclosing Party may at any time notify the Recipient that the Recipient must return to the Disclosing Party the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information. Each Party hereby agrees to, within 30 days of the notification: (i) return the other Party’s Confidential Information and (ii) certify in a writing attested to by a duly authorized officer of such Party that it has destroyed all copies thereof.

14.5 Disclosures Required By Law. Where disclosure of the Confidential Information is required by operation of law, court order or governmental order, the Recipient will immediately notify the Disclosing Party thereof (including the manner of disclosure) so that the Disclosing Party may take such action as it deems necessary to intervene, limit the scope of disclosure or otherwise seek assurances of confidentiality. Further, Recipient agrees to cooperate fully with the Disclosing Party in taking action to protect the Disclosing Party’s Confidential Information or otherwise limit the scope of required disclosure.

and Company will provide End Users the option to opt out of different forms of e-mail communications from Company and University, as applicable, provided that Company may continue to deliver administrative communications relating to University Courses to End Users. If agreed as a monetization strategy for the applicable Course, End Users will also be provided the option to opt in or opt out of receiving offers or other communications from prospective employers.

b) University Monetization Model. With End User consent, Company will provide University access to End User names and e-mail addresses and per-End User assessment results collected in connection with Courses offered under the University Monetization Model in a grade book format, provided that University agrees not to sell, provide or otherwise disclose any such data to any third party without the End User’s express permission. University will not use such End User e-mails or other contact information, or allow third parties to whom it has provided such information to use, in a manner that would reflect negatively on the Services or the Company Website. University agrees that it will use such End User e-mails or other contact information only to deliver communications or advertisements that are of a quantity and quality that are commensurate with University’s high standards and do not impose an unreasonable intrusion on any End Users’ time or resources only for (i) the purpose Course-based administrative communications or (ii) University-sponsored activities. 15. DISCLAIMERS; LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY

15.1 Disclaimer of Warranty. The Services and the Platform are provided by Company “AS IS” without any warranty of any kind, including, without limitation, any implied warranties of MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT.

15.2 DISCLAIMER OF CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES OR LIABILITY ARISING FROM A PARTY'S WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, NEITHER PARTY WILL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES (INCLUDING DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF BUSINESS OR INFORMATION OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER SUCH LIABILITY IS BASED ON BREACH OF CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY, BREACH OF WARRANTIES OR OTHERWISE, AND EVEN IF SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. THIS LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SHALL APPLY EVEN IF ANY REMEDY FAILS OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.

15.3 LIMITATION ON LIABILITY. EXCEPT FOR DAMAGES OR LIABILITY ARISING FROM A PARTY'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, A PARTY'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF THE CAUSE OF ACTION, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, STATUTE OR OTHERWISE, SHALL IN NO EVENT EXCEED THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF NET PROFITS SUCH PARTY RECEIVED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MONETIZATION OF UNIVERSITY COURSES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IN THE TWELVE MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE ON WHICH THE CLAIM FOR DAMAGES OR LIABILITY AROSE.

16. INDEMNIFICATION. Each Party shall be responsible for its own acts, omissions and the results thereof.

17. TERM AND TERMINATION

17.1 Term. This Agreement will commence on the Effective Date and will continue in effect until terminated as set forth below (the "Term").

17.2 Termination for Cause. Either Party may terminate this Agreement, upon written notice to the other Party: (a) if such other Party commits a material breach of this Agreement, which breach is not cured within 30 days of receipt of written notice of such breach from the non-breaching Party, (b) immediately if such other Party has a receiver appointed, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors or in the event of any insolvency or inability to pay debts as they become due, except as may be prohibited by applicable bankruptcy laws, or (c) immediately if the acts or omissions of such other Party adversely or negatively cause or result in material damage to or loss of a Party's reputation. Any disagreements or disputes regarding any material damage or loss to reputation will be resolved by the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 19.2.

17.3 Termination without Cause. Either Party may terminate this Agreement upon providing at least 90 days' prior written notice of such termination to the other Party.
17.4 Consequences of Termination. Termination of this Agreement for any reason does not relieve either Party of its obligation to pay any amounts owed to the other Party that became due prior to such termination. Upon any termination of this Agreement, each Party will promptly return all Confidential Information (other than this Agreement) of the other Party in its possession or control.

a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Party, all rights and obligations under this Agreement will immediately cease, and Company will have no further obligation to provide any of the Services, except that in the case of termination by either Party under Section 17.3 or termination by University under Section 17.2 (and provided Company does not itself have a right to terminate this Agreement under Section 17.2), Company will continue to host and make available, and have the right to monetize, any Course that is being hosted and provided by Company through the Platform at the time of termination for the remainder of the Course Lifespan.

b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 17.4, in the event of termination of this Agreement by University under Sections 17.2(a) and 17.2(c), Company agrees that for a period of up to three years after such termination, and at University’s request, it will continue providing hosting and streaming services through the Platform under the University Monetization Model, subject to all applicable terms and conditions of this Agreement (including payment by University), which terms and conditions will survive so long as Company continues to provide such services post-termination.

17.5 Surviving Provisions. The following provisions will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement: Sections 1; 5.1 – 5.3 (for owing and unpaid amounts), 5.4 – 5.6; 7.4; 14; 15; 16; 17.4; 17.5 and 19.

18. SOURCE CODE ESCROW

18.1 Deposit. Within 30 days of University’s request, Company will place a complete copy of the source code for the Platform and related documentation (including instructions for use) into escrow with an independent third-party escrow agent mutually agreed by the Parties, at University’s expense, and enter into an escrow agreement under which University is a named beneficiary (“Escrow Agreement”). Throughout the Term, Company will update the source code for the Platform and related documentation every calendar quarter so that the deposit reflects the most current version of the Platform and documentation (collectively, the “Escrow Materials”).

18.2 Release. Provided that University is not in breach of this Agreement, University will be entitled to request the release of the Escrow Materials upon the occurrence of one of the following events (each being a “Release Event”): (i) Company becomes the subject of any proceedings seeking relief, reorganization or rearrangement under any laws relating to bankruptcy or insolvency (and such proceeding is not dismissed within 90 days) and Company becomes unable to perform its obligations with respect to the Platform under the terms and conditions of this Agreement; or (ii) Company commences the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of its business and no successor-in-interest to Company continues to operate the business. If this Agreement is terminated by Company pursuant to Section 17.2, then University’s rights as a beneficiary under the Escrow Agreement will immediately terminate.

18.3 Rights to Escrow Materials. If the Escrow Materials are released to University pursuant to a valid Release Event, then Company hereby grants University a non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license to use the Escrow Materials internally for the sole purpose of hosting and offering Content to End Users in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, for the remainder of the Term, and to use and modify the Escrow Materials for internal support and maintenance purposes. The Escrow Material at all times remains the Confidential Information of Company, and will be protected in perpetuity until and unless one or more of the confidentiality exclusions set forth in Section 14.1 above occurs. University will not have the right to distribute, publish or otherwise disclose any of the Escrow Materials. If, following the release to University of the Escrow Materials, Company can demonstrate to University’s reasonable satisfaction that Company can continue to perform its obligations under this Agreement, then University will return the Escrow Materials to the escrow agent and cease exercising its license rights in this Section 19.3.

this Section 19.2.

settle the Dispute, unless otherwise required by law. Nothing herein, however, will prohibit either Party from seeking temporary injunctive relief from any court of competent jurisdiction.

c) If the Dispute is not settled within ten business days after the first day of mediation (or such longer time agreed to by both Parties), either Party may initiate litigation;
however, neither Party may initiate litigation against the other without first utilizing the process set forth in this Section 19.2, except for seeking a temporary restraining order or a preliminary injunction. To the extent permitted by law, the Parties agree that any statute of limitations applicable to any claim, controversy, or dispute shall be tolled from the date that such notice is sent under clause (a) above until the first day upon which the Parties are permitted to initiate litigation.
